“There are places I’ll remember

All my life though some have changed.

Some forever not for better,

Some have gone and some remain.

All these place have their moments,

With lovers and friends I still can recall.

Some are dead and some are living,

In my life I’ve loved them all.”

- The Beatles

Four years of high school can be summed up as a stressful, boring, and waste of time to most. In away that is how it's supposed to be. Because if it wasen't we would all stay in school forever. Bu I found who I am in high school. It left me the freedom to explore and try new things. I dress, act, feel, and think different. I met my first love as a sophmore. I realized art or animation is what I want to do for my career (thank you Mr. Sullivan, and Mrs. McCarey). And to all my friends, I'll never forget you! Jay, Kaitlyn, Colby,Brad,Perry,Alex,Christina,Beth,Mick,KJ,Geiler, and my whoel animation class 12 years down, lots more to go. Some bad experiences (driver's tests/wired jaws) but many more good memories (GLACKtaculars Pufferbellies, excursions, locker buddies, French, inuendos, & boys... & more boys, keys, cars, windows, showers). I didn't get this far alone. Thanks so much to my parents, who, I hate to admit, are always right. Thanks to every teacher I've ever had--I've learned more than my ABC's and123's from you. Thanks to all of the House D office staff--I've been guided in the right direction. Thanks to my friends who have changed and grown with me over the years. I'm gonna miss this place.

Dear everyone: Thank you for making this game all it has amounted to, from you who loyally stuck with me through the intense crap, to you who forced me to learn the hard way; from you who laughed hysterically with me, to you who seriously challenged me. All the time holds its value, whether it consists of the truly gorgeous experiences or the frustating obstacles, for it has molded us into the enigmas we presently are. Yet, it's only our foundation, and now each one of us shall push onward, chasing our own favorite phantoms, Meanwhile, be true to your soul, respect the earth, and love freely. Love eternally, Lianna.

It has been four years since I walked through those doors as a freshman and what a journey it has been. Four years seems like such a long time, but it really isn't, they fly by in a blink of an eye. Thanks to my teachers I have learned a lot and thanks to my friends it has been a joy coming here. I now move on to the next part of my life and I will cherish the memories I have gained hear a Barnstable High School.

I want to thank all the people that have helped me get this far including my parents, friends, sister, and everyone else. To not continually try to reach your full potential, or to live without fun and happiness are some of the true crimes that should never be committed. Thanks for all the kindness and help to all that help me in the transfer to B.H.S. Thanks for some of the best years of my young life. I still don't know how I got the name S2 or Lemmiwinks and I don't want to know so lets leave it at that. Hope to see you all again out in the real world so if you see me say high but if not have a good life and thanks.

Back in 1991, I used to hit old people with folding chairs. Suddenly, I moved to the north side of Chicago, Illinois in the summer of 1992. It made a rock star out of me at last. At 10:00 PM, I drove my Bronco back to Birdman's real estate. I jumped over the fence, I picked up a brick and shattered Birdman's window pane. Birdman sighted me doing it and reached for his pistol. Suddenly, I jumped back in my Bronco and took off like O.J. Simpson. McDonald's hamburgers are the worst. They are worse than Burger King. After all is said and done, Im afraid I may actually miss BHS. Friends & enemies alike, no matter where our journeys began we all achieved a common goal. From here our paths fork once more hoping one day they might merge again. Never could I have kept up with my class if it wasn't for my family. Mom Dad Caleb Adam I love you always, you are my strength. Lear/ABI/Jpo/KMiz RaJo your continued support and tolerance has always allowed me to be myself. The last four years of my life have contained the happiest and the saddest of times. Depression had had a hold of me, but, more importantly Patricia Romero gained control of me. Everything I have learned i will forget, but I will never forget the impact this time in my life has left. Hopefully marriage, childrenm career, and retirement will all go smoothly. With some help from my friends and my beautiful girlfriend Patricia I have survived and will continue to do so.

The long trip down the endless road of school has come to an end. In reflection, school has been the only thing I've ever stayed committed to, other than breathing and such. Along the way, I've seen a lot of faces, and met a lot of good people. To the Kennedy Sailing crew, here's to good times. To friends that'll remain engraved in memories forever: Josh LaPine (a.k.a Uno) Mike Ianniello (future Yngwie) Megan Kennedy (the times we shared were among the best). And lastly to my loving family, who has been there supporting me every step of this journey called life.

Katherine Taylor

These past 4 years have not just been about showing up everyday or learning English, Math, Science & Histroy. It's been about the experiences of passion, anger, love, depression & happiness. I've learned more about humanity & how to react, relate & cope then I've learned about WWII or deciphering poetry. It's all about taking the good with the bad & finding those few minutes to half-ayour homework. To all the people that I've laughed and cried with you know who you are & I love you all.

Thanks to my friends who have helped me find who I am, and for always putting a smile on my face. Thank you Mr. Lopes for helping me build up my artistic mind and alway teaching me new ways to improve my work. Thanks to you, I will go on as a fine arts major, and soon have a career in the arts. High school has certainly been one long and crazy trip. I have met incredible amounts of amazing people. I have done and seen things that I never thought I'd ever do or see. I will never forget this school and my time here. These four years have definitely held some of the best moments of my life. Thanks to everyone who was ever there for me, thanks to my parents, thanks to swimteam with all of our spaghetti dinners, thanks to the homeroom table 'cause we rock, and thanks to all my friends and especially Kate Leary.

I have found that it is not until you begin your senior write-up do you realize how rich you are in friends. To all of you, you mean so much to me, and I love each one of you, especially my homeroom table. To Sullivan, O'Toole, the Gyras, Shark, Orr, Stampfl, and Dr. I, you are the ones who make dreams come true. Mummy and Timmy, you gave me lunch money, you were there when I came home, I love you. Hunty, you are my boy, and you'll always get shotgun in the car. Dad, thankyou for teaching me. I consider myself lucky for all the time on this stage I've been given, and for all the players I have met, especially my Hermia.

I thought about this write-up for a long time. I still don't know who I should thank or who I should acknowledge. Over the past four years relationships between people have been constantly changing. But lacking this, in the future I will relaxedly turn back to my secret mind and see what it has observed when I thought I was sitting this one out. We never sit anything out. secrets unknown & words unsaid. memories never yet completed. family & friends left behind waiting. & teachers still not thanked. i only hope farewell means i'll see you all again someday -- these years hold great accomplishments yet goals remain unfulfilled. although BHS says goodbye, i must learn to say hello. the world remains undiscovered but lies open to discovery. i only hope graduation marks the advent of greater endeavors-- like most everything, high school embraces not what you do but the experience gained from it. I'm forever grateful for those experiences that have made my life worthwhile.

To spare certain individuals the shame and humiliation of not appearing in my write up, or appearing poorly, I offer my sincere gratitude on a more general basis to all of you who have in some way aided in the achievement of my current state of affairs, whatever that may be (you know who you are); to those of you with the common sense to remain neutral, a metaphorical pat on the back. On the other hand, to those of you who hindered me along the way, I offer only the knowledge that in some parts of the world, deadly illnesses still run rampant; leave now, and you can probably catch some if you hurry. Thanks to everyone at BHS who made the last year and a half soo much fun.

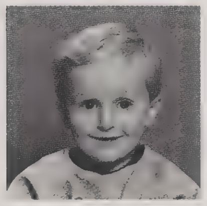
"Beyond its entertainment value, Baywatch has enriched and, in many cases, helped save lives. I'm looking forward to the opportunity to continue with a project which has had such a significance for so many." -David Hasselhoff



Heather M. Wysocki

Sometimes, looking back on things makes them seem a little more trivial. It's easy to forget how much we cried--or the times we were too numb to let the tears fall. And sometimes we forget the happiness that comes after each hard fought battle--or the bruises that hurt so badly at the time. But no matter how we felt, whether we cried 1000 tears or 1 and whether we smiled once or not at all, we should always remember the moments that shaped us, broke us, or taught us to fly. Here's to it all.

We are sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself. You may house our bodies but not our souls, for our souls dwell in the house of tomorrow which you cannot visit even in your dreams.

Well, it's finally over. I want to thank MS, IS, NO, LH, MH, BN, CS,JR,JA, AE,BM, JS, TH, AB, SH, NL and the girls: RS, BM,AJ,KC, LC,MG,RC,NU,CS, you guys were there for me through the good times and bad. And anyone else I forgot. Memorable times in the past four years- COVENTRY, so many days after school in my basement, bubba-chubb, all the crazy nights. I want to thank my Mother who showed me so much while she was here. I love you. Also want to thank my Dad and brother Jeff for always being there for me. It's been interesting, but nothing lasts forever, now its time to hit the road. Later BHS

Through my experiences I have found that: you must discover who you are and become at peace with yourself, before you can set out on the road for true love. And yes kids, even if your as dumb as a rock, you too can become president. The road I've treked was tough, and I couldn't;ve done it without my best friends: Sammy B, Bridget, Rachael and my bud Tim. To all my other great friends, I love you guys and I would be who I am without getting to know every one of you "Hey Hey My My, Rock and Roll will never die." Neil Young

I want to thank Dad, Mom, Bob, Pa, Grandma, bobby, Lindsey, Jacqueline and my brother Mike, DW,MS,MH,ML,AB*,DS,PH,JM,MI,JP,JB,SX,MP,AK,SM,DZ,BG,AR,SC,MI, and everyone else, you know who you are, for making my years great at BHS.- hey everyone, I actually made it. There have been many fun times and many rough times but I have always made it through because of my teachers, friends, and family. I wish the best to all of your futures.

I have not failed 700 times. I have not failed once. I have succeeded in proving that those 700 ways will not work. When I have eliminated the ways that will not work, I will find the way that will work.

CHILDREN ARE LIKE KITES

Children are like Kites. You spend a lifetime trying to get them off the ground. You run with them until you're both breathless. They crash, you add a longer tail. They hit the rooftop, you pluck them out of the spout. You patch and comfort, adjust and teach. You watch them lifted by the wind and assure them that someday they'll fly.....

Finally, they are airborne, but they need more string and you keep letting it out, and with each twist of the ball of twine, there is sadness that goes with the joy because the kite becomes more distant and somehow you know that it won't be long before that beautiful creature will snap the life-line that bound you together and then soar as it was meant to soar.

Free and alone and you will have done your job well.

Brittany, the life-line may have snapped, but the string that was once visible will always be attached to our hearts. You have made us very proud and we know whatever way the wind takes you, you are a survivor.

We love you very much, Dad, Mom & J.C.

Ashley-

Jack,

It's hard to believe our little "Bud" has grown up to be such a wonderful young man. We are so proud of all that you have accomplished in the past 4 years. May your future be full of all the good things life has to offer.

All our love,

Dad, Mom, and Leah

We are so proud of you and all you have achieved. May your future be filled with as much love and happiness as you have brought us. You are the best! Congratulations.

MAX.................

We've taken many journeys together
you and I.
Some scary like the time I got lost on the freeway in L.A. and we ended up in Newport. You were only two.
Scary for me but not for you, the draw bridges you took me over by accident (?)
Then there were the "interesting" ones.
Best I not reveal those in print!
But the most important journey will always be the one you're taking called your life. This graduation day is a milestone on that road.
I congratulate you my Grandson.
No matter where you go or where I am
I'll be there for you.

Katie N.

Your family and friends are all very happy for you. And also very proud of all you have accomplished.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Nicole

Congratulations Brian Meuse!

CAUTION CAUTION CAUTION CAUTION CAUTION CAUTION CAUTION

I'll top the bill, I'll overkill, I have to find the will to carry on. On with the show. The Show Must Go On.
Queen- The Show Must Go On

Hey everybody, since the senior write up space was so small, I thought I would write my "Real" write up here. I don't really know where to start, so I'll just start. It has been a great four years here, sure I've had my ups and downs, but if I didn't, then High School would have been really boring. Also without Drama Club it would have been unimaginable. I've been doing shows since very early middle school, and the whole experience is something I wouldn't trade anything for, so thank you Mr. Sullivan, and Mr. O'Toole.

"Everything in the world is Beautiful unless it's Ugly."

Now for the shout outs. Damien, here's to the late nights riding around town looking for parties. Mike O'Toole, you've been a great friend to me since elementary school, here's hoping graduation doesn't change that. McGuirk, you've been a great friend too, I'm looking forward to seeing you famous someday. Geiler, Dropkick authority, your the greatest. Dan, so when are we getting our pirate ship ? Shauna, hanging out over at my place watching Moulin Rouge, we'll stay in touch. To all my other friends; Tim C. Ryan B. Adam C. Jay C. Pat McG. Patty Mac. DJ B. Drew E. Liz D. Sam N. Ann B. Ashley C. Brian P. Bridget D. Maxie D. Pat R. Chris Tut. Jessie L. Sam W. (I probably missed someone.) I wish you all luck in whatever you do with your life, I won't forget you.

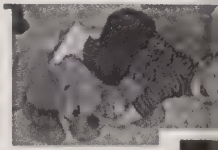
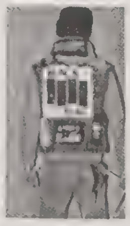
Kirsten-
Where did the time go? You are all grown up and about to leave for college…our last to go. It will be hard for us, but knowing that you have grown into a mature young woman who has always made good decisions and always made us proud, will help us get through. Watching you grow and change has been amazing! You have brought us so much joy and happiness. You have had some personal challenges these last four years but you stayed strong and you got through them. Your hard work has paid off! Continue to strive for what you want and there will be nothing you cannot accomplish. We're so proud of you.
Much love and congratulations-
Mom, Dad, Carrie, and Kelly.





Many's the time we wonder, with the years rushing by so fast
If we ever can keep the present from slipping into the past.
Can we look at pictures, tell tall tales, laugh at jokes at dinner?
Hey, it's always great to listen to a Heisman Trophy winner!
And what stories we can spin, what memories we can recall:
Evenings in summer, Eric, the lake, Manhunt and basketball,
Lazy days watching "Bluno", building roads in the dirt;
Trekking to Fenway that cold winter day for a Yo-somebody-
Sam Red Sox shirt.
Oh, what about those looks as the school bus pulled away,
The photos of Mom you put on your desk to make it through the day,
Or the drugstore trips when you'd ask for one more little truck –
Oh, and all those tricky moves only you could do with a nuk?
Love you forever, Mike... now don't get all frowny:
Even when you're in college, you'll still have your Brownie.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Kate & Harry

"The setting sunset says the day is through

If only we knew...

And we all sit around here in our home town

Listen to the waves as they all crash down

And watch the fire as it slowly burns away

Glowing embers fly across the sky

And we laugh till we cry

Always so hard to say goodbye"
